

I support K-Love Radio by donating funds with my business and my personal funds. I feel that this radio station provides a needed service in my community. It is a safe radio station where a parent does not have to worry about what thier children may hear on the air.